

EDUCATIONAL PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM QUICK REFERENCE LIST

We're glad your organization participates as a DelVal Educational Partner!

Please use this resource list of helpful links to learn more about our degree programs, professional development and training opportunities, certificates, continuing education, and more.

- Educational Partnership Program – Learn more about partnership benefits, who is eligible, and how the program works. Watch the Virtual Information Session video to view Delaware Valley University's beautiful 1,000-acre campus, meet our team, and discover your possibilities in advancing your education and career.
- Schedule an Appointment with the Partnership Coordinator – Have questions about DelVal's academic offerings? Not sure whom to contact about programs or your area of interest? Schedule an appointment with DelVal Educational Partnership Program Coordinator Karen Snyder. She will assist you in answering your question or directing you to the correct University staff member for a 1:1 meeting.
- Master's Degrees and Graduate Certificates – Taking the next step in your career may require an advanced degree! Learn more about DelVal's nine master's degrees and 21+ graduate certificate programs.

- Continuing and Professional Studies – Complete your degree, earn a professional certificate, or study something you always wanted to learn. The possibilities are endless through our part-time undergraduate degrees, credit and non-credit certificate programs, and DelVal's on-demand, online training options.
- Academic Calendar – Find out when classes start and end, deadlines, and other important semester dates.
- How to Apply (Undergraduate) – No application deadlines to worry about through our rolling admission process. Learn more and complete your application online today. Remember, no application fee!
- How to Apply (Graduate) – Learn about the Graduate School admission process for the degree you are interested in. Many programs offer a rolling admission while others may have an application deadline. Application requirements may vary by degree or certificate program. However, there is no application fee to apply!
- On-Demand Career Development Courses – Access quality professional development courses or acquire new skills through our mobile-friendly online platform. Taught and supported by experts in their fields, these courses can have an immediate impact on your career readiness or advancement educational aspirations. These courses also qualify for the DelVal EPP tuition discount. Contact Karen Snyder at epp@delval.edu to receive the discount code prior to registering for your selected course(s). (Additional discounts may apply for group registrations of 15 or more.)
